THESDAY, JULY 2, 1872.

Mr. WILLIAM E. SIMMONS, Jr., is the travelling agent for THE NEWS, for South Carolina.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

-Senator Sumner is reported to be preparing another speech on the subject of our national fluances.

-Florida is the only State in the Union without a daily paper. It has two tri-weekly, one semi-weekly, twenty-one weekly, and one monthly.

-Tom Scott has invested $150,000 in sawmills at Apalachicola, Florida, to get out crossties from cypress and juniper, which will be chemicalized in some way to be rendered fire-proof, and used on the Southern Pacific Railroad.

-Poor Howard is certainly to be released this time. The Spanish minister at Washington has announced the promulgation of an order to that effect by the State department at Madrid. The release was ordered, it appears, in consequence of negotiations ending only on Thursday morning, so that up to that date Dr. Howard was, of course, in confinement. -The San Francisco Bulletin states that a manufacturer of bird cages and other ware in that city, a short time since thought to enlarge his revenue by substituting Chinese cheap labor for the white workmen he had in his emp'oy. The Mongols did well enough at one dollar a day for a short time, until they mastered the business, when the whole party resigned and set up for themselves, and are now "bearing" the bird cage market at a fearful rate. The author of this enlargement of their sphere of enterprise is prone to believe "we are ruined by Chinese cheap labor."

-Captain I-alah Rynders, well-known to all old New Yorkers, and for the past six years a resident of Bergen County, New Jersey, was a delegate to the New Jersey State Convention, representing Lodi township. A New York correspondent says: "The captain, with his half-moon whiskers extending from the tip of one ear to that of the other, his rosy face, his white hat perched defiantly on the top of his head, looks like the genuine old Jersey farmer he is, instead of the famous muscular politician which his reputation justifles. He giories in the fact of having voted the Democratic ticket for forty-seven years, and yet hopes to live to cast one more vote, and that for Horace Greeley."

-Of all the hotels in the world, the very oddest is a lonely one in California, on the road between San Jose and Santa Cruz. Imagine ten immense trees standing a lew feet apart, and hollow inside; these are the hotel, neat, breezy and romantic. The largest tree is sixty-five feet round, and contains a sittingroom and that bureau of Bacchus wherefrom is dispensed the thing that biteth and stingeth. All about this tree is a garden of flowers and evergreens. The drawing-room is a bower made of redwood, evergreens and madrona branches. For bed-chambers, there are nine eat hollow trees, whitewashed or papered, and having doors cut to fit the shape of the holes. "Averature finds a place in a leaning stump, dubbed "the library." If it was not for that same haunt of Bacchus, it is certain that the guests of this forest establishment would feel like nothing so much as dryads.

-At a meeting of parties interested lu the silk manufacture at Newark, N. J., last week, an interesting account of the progress of that industry in this country was given. It was stated that over $125,000,000 worth of sllk goods are consumed in this country each year. Of this amount only $30,000,000 are manufactured here, consequently American capitalists have a wide field to operate in, and a profitable one, as silk manufacturers realize over thirty per cent. on their investments yearly. A manufactory is projected at Newark, N. J. The capital required to organize the company is $300.000, of which $45,000 has been subscribed, and the projectors of the enterprise are confident that success will attend their efforts. They promise that stockholders will receive twelve per cent, on their stock the first year the factory is in working order, and thirty per cent. the second year. -Professor Agassiz has written a long letter in the nature of a report to Professor Pierce, superintendent of the United States Coast Survey, which is published. In his expedition to South America the great scientist seems to have found abundant confirmation of his glacial theories, which, besides being satisfactory to himself and his admirers on that account, will doubtless prove of the greatest value to geological scence. It is not too much, remarks the New York Tribune, to say that he has found the Alps of the New World, for in the close likeness between the mountain scenery of Patagonia and that of Switzerland, which he glowingly depicts, he has recognized something more than a mere similarity of appearance, and shown that the same great agency which gave peculiarities of shape and characteristics of surface to the mountains of the Old World has left equal imprints at the extremity of our continent -Lord Granville, acting with the Italian Cabinet, has suggested to the governments of Europe the propriety of holding a conference for the purpose of considering what steps should be taken with regard to the persecution of the Jews in Roumania. On the part of Russia, Prince Gortchakoff declines to enter into a conference on such a subject, for fear of in any way reviving the Eastern question. which he holds it be the interest of all the European States to leave undisturbed. He is willing, however, to subscribe a joint note to the Government of Roumania, calling its notice to the outrages complained of, and inquir ing what are its intentions regarding future policy on the subject, and what guarantees it is willing to give, in accordance with the humane spirit of the age, that a stop shall be put to such cruelties. Should the answer of the Roumanian Government not be satisfactory the Prince is willing to proceed in the matter in the spirit of the Treaty of Paris of 1856. The answer made by the Prussian Govern ment is substantially the same as that of Rus-mium of four pounds sterling a ton on each | better. That the married men see the disressel captured, or five pounds a head on each advantage at which they are placed is alslave found on board the slaver. From the ready evident. The radical remedy appears report of these bounties the slave trade does not seem to be flourishing as well as formerly. During the eighteen months ending January, 1872, only twenty-four vessels were captured in all, and of those only six were restored to their owners. Stven hundred and twenty-two Africans were found on them, of whom two hundred and eighty-three were returned to the vessels, and three hundred and seventyseven emancipated, the other sixty-two dying between the capture and condemnation of the vessels. In one case, where only two slaves were captured, the bounty amounted to eight hundred and eight pounds. By the head it would have amounted to only ten pounds, but the captors were careful to calculate it by the ton. Did it never occur to any speculative wretch that money might be made out of this arrangement? For instance, half a dozen old schooners might be chartered, an African placed on each, and then put where they would be sure to be captured, arrangements having been made beforehand for a division of the bounty. Here is an opportunity for enterprising souls who wish to turn an honest penny at the expense of the British Government.
